Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file printout is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes.

The image shows a prepubescent girl posing naked for the camera with her genital area exposed. The purpose of the image is to sexually titillate or arouse people with a sexual interest in children. By presenting a sexualised image of a young girl, the publication encourages this sexual interest.

The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
